Exceptional Guest Speakers

NANCY DORNAN

Founders Crown Ambassador, USA
Founder of Network TwentyOne

Nancy & Jim Dornan started their Amway business in 1970. Both were bright young graduates of Purdue University, filled with hope, dreams and the promise of a bright future. After hearing Rich DeVos and Jay Van Andel speak, the Dornans knew they wanted a different kind of life ... a better life for their family. Jim and Nancy had confidence in the Amway business and decided to take control of their future by starting their own business as a step toward financial freedom.

In 1989 Jim and Nancy founded Network TwentyOne and for the last 25 years they have guided the development and expansion of Network TwentyOne, gaining enormous business experience and a profound understanding of the hopes and dreams of individuals in many cultures and societies.

Nancy, with her unique insight into human nature, her sense of expectancy, her optimism, her belief and her willingness to do the uncomfortable, was a perfect partner in the development of the Dornan business and the expansion of Network TwentyOne around the world.

With wisdom and character, Jim masterfully led Network TwentyOne from its inception 1989 until his passing in 2013. Today, Jim lives on through those he equipped and taught, and his legacy continues to grow, as these leaders influence countless others, generation to generation, on a global scale.

HANS NUSSHOLD

Crown Ambassador
Austria

Despite having exciting and well paid careers as skiing instructors in the USA and Australia, Hans and Eva decided to begin building their own business, an Amway business. Prompted by the birth of their first daughter, Hans and Eva had the desire to build not just careers but something that belonged to them.

Throughout the 1990’s Amway opened one central European market after another. Hans and Eva were interested in the fact that network marketing offered the prospect of building an international business which could be based in their home country of Austria. They started building their own organization which today is one of the biggest in Europe.

Hans Nusshold’s undeniable strengths are his attitude of positive expectation and his ability to think in huge dimensions. He is an excellent listener and an unshakeable optimist. His passion for this business still forces him to rise above himself, even after three decades, and to do exceptional things, which lead to exceptional results.

... and many more leaders from all over Europe.
